SPA AND WELLNESS BY ANANTARA ANGKOR
'MY DESTINATION IS NOT A NEW PLACE, BUT A NEW WAY OF BEING.'
- THE GODDESS RETREATS

Cambodia’s identity, its history and culture, are intrinsically linked to its belief systems – from the earlier years of Hinduism to the latter advent of Buddhism.

These influences can be traced through the bas-reliefs of Angkor Wat and seen in the stone faces of the Bayon. They are also reflected in its healing traditions. The Spa at Anantara Angkor pays homage to Cambodia’s rich cultural heritage, blended with our own holistic wellness beliefs, and brought to life through a diverse collection of spa offers and wellness journeys inspired by the Seven Ways of Enlightenment. Each treatment by The Spa and each ritual devoted to well-being featured in this menu celebrates Khmer healing practices and traditions in a holistic approach to modern enlightenment. We believe wellness is personal. Thus, we have created this array of wellbeing sensations, governed by a Thematic Concept covering hand-picked spa experiences to wellness packages, to suit every mood, preference and fitness lifestyle.

We invite you on a personal path of discovery, joy and peace. A bespoke spiritual journey that harmoniously interweaves with your experiences in Cambodia.
‘I SEE THINGS.
I FEEL THINGS.
I KNOW THINGS THAT I HAVE NO WAY OF KNOWING.
YET I KNOW.’
-RUMI
THE FIRST WAY OF ENLIGHTENMENT

Our first wellness journey centres on the first path to enlightenment: mindfulness or ‘sati’ (स्मृति). To be mindful is to be fully connected with the present moment. To be keenly aware, with all senses attuned to your environment and what is happening around you. The mind must be still, the body relaxed, the breath naturally flowing.

At Anantara Angkor, sati may be pursued through carefully curated spa treatments or through a full wellness ritual. Every experience is designed to quieten the mind.

HIGHLIGHTS OF A SATI MOMENT

- Soothing music will calm you - body, mind and spirit
- Coconut oil for a massage to soothe and relax tight muscles in the body
- At the end of your treatment, we invite you to learn Khmer “Krigami,” the tradition of artfully folding leaves into beautiful shapes

- JACK CANFIELD, AUTHOR AND ENTREPRENEUR
THE SECOND WAY OF ENLIGHTENMENT

Our second journey to enlightenment is concerned with unveiling the manifestations of natural reality through keen, sensual investigation. It is rediscovering the nature of existence, investigating the truth and understanding one’s true self. This is called dhamma vijaya or dharma (धर्म).

At Anantara Angkor, we see self-realisation as a process of reconnecting with nature and our journey helps you establish that connection. Imagine bathing in the sounds of nature. Gentle rainfall, gushing streams or birdsong on a summer’s evening, all while luxuriating in the earthy scent of forest wood. Relish the primeval sensation of clay which is nature’s natural detoxifier. It is time to reconnect with the very essence of who you are, a child of nature.

HIGHLIGHTS OF DHAMMA VIJAYA MOMENT:

• The sounds of nature are the key to a pleasant detachment from the stresses of life
• Choose from a range of earthy, woody aromas - from the exotic Angkunh Seed Oil, to earthy Cedar or Sandalwood to lightly refreshing Rosewood

HAND REFLEXOLOGY (60 Minutes)

This is a lesson in hand reflexology. Massaging the key points in the hands will stimulate the nerves to relieve tension stress and imbalances of various parts or organs in the body.

WALKING MEDITATION (60 Minutes)

In walking meditation, practitioners focus on every sensation associated with the experience of walking instead of allowing their minds to drift, wander, obsess about the past, or worry about the future. The goal of walking meditation is to focus on the timeless present moment. Walking meditation settles the mind as the practitioner “watches” the sensation of each foot as it touches the ground, the movement of their muscles and limbs as they walk, and the Sensation of each breathe flowing in and out.
‘THE WARRIOR OF LIGHT IS A BELIEVER BECAUSE HE BELIEVES IN MIRACLES. MIRACLES BEGIN TO HAPPEN BECAUSE HE IS SURE HIS THOUGHTS WILL CHANGE HIS LIFE. HIS LIFE BEGINS TO CHANGE FOR EVERY DEFEAT HE HAS TWO VICTORIES IN HIS FAVOR.’
- PAULO COELHO
THE THIRD WAY OF ENLIGHTENMENT

This path is dedicated to energy or ‘virya’ (वीयर्). It seeks to enhance strength and courage which is much-needed in our life's journey. This assembly of spa practices and well-being lifestyle interests are for those motivated by a thirst for the uncommon, by the thrill of adventure and those who are motivated by challenges. The Spa at Anantara Angkor’s interpretation of virya is a journey back in the time when the Khmer kings were revered for their might and power. It is a full sensory reminiscence of the lore and tales of the glory of this ancient kingdom. Retrace the ancient footsteps of this lands kings and queens.

THE FOURTH WAY OF ENLIGHTENMENT

Rapture, joy or ‘piti’ is the fourth way of enlightenment. It emphasises detachment from cravings and earthly materialism. It is a return to simplicity, to kindness towards others and to embracing life’s every moment. The Spa at Anantara Angkor manifests piti with a collection of spa offerings and wellness activities which indulge the body with subtle delights. Rapture is intrinsic and is encouraged in its purist form. It is an invitation to detox the mind and the heart from the modern dictates of consumerism. Anantara Angkor is the perfect retreat, a welcoming respite away from the complexities and demands of a hectic lifestyle.

’IN THE SILENCE
ARE THE ANSWERS.’
-ANONYMOUS
THE FIFTH WAY OF ENLIGHTENMENT

This journey is one of calmness and tranquillity of body and mind: ‘passaddhi’. It addresses the human need for contentment. It is that sense of accomplishment which leads to true serenity. The Spa at Anantara Angkor’s journey to passaddhi is meant to facilitate an innate sense of calm. An acceptance which equals the feel of tranquillity of the body and consciousness. - AMIT RAY, AUTHOR AND SPIRITUAL MASTER
THE SIXTH WAY OF ENLIGHTENMENT

‘Samadhi’ or ‘concentration’ is the sixth way of enlightenment. Samadhi is a state of consciousness that lies beyond waking, dreaming or even deep sleep. It is the act of meditative focus to achieve a state of Zen. Anantara Angkor’s approach to samadhi is to present you with a selection of holistic wellness experiences from spa treatments to wellbeing practices which will help you focus your mind. Thereby, harnessing your energies, allowing you to emerge refreshed and purified. This is a journey of reinvigorating one’s self. THE SEVENTH WAY OF ENLIGHTENMENT

Our final journey seeks equanimity or ‘upekkha’. This is the sense of balance between desire and aversion. Balance in mind. Balance in emotions. Balance in life.

The Spa at Anantara Angkor’s well-being journey towards upekkha is centred on the practise of letting go and venturing onto the road to acceptance. Meditation is the solidifying key to finding the harmony of body and consciousness. To pursue the way of equanimity is to embrace an open-minded approach to living.
