Samui

Koh Samui, Thailand is open for international travel from 15 July 2021, with onward travel to the neighbouring islands of Koh Phangan and Koh Tao allowed after 7 days traveling under the Samui Plus Model (SPM), previously known as Samui Sealed Route, is permitted for:

- Fully vaccinated adults from low- and medium-risk countries
- Children travelling with vaccinated parents

Travellers will be permitted to travel to other parts of Thailand after 14 days if they test negative for covid-19.

Information is based on the latest updates from the Tourism Authority of Thailand (TAT) and may be subject to change.*

PRE-ARRIVAL & ARRIVAL

To travel to Koh Samui, you will require:

- A negative PCR test result issued within 72 hours before departure
- Proof that you have been fully vaccinated against COVID-19
- Proof that you spent previous 21 days in low- or medium-risk country
- Confirmation of booking at ALQ (minimum 7 nights) and SHA+ certified hotels for 14 nights
- A Certificate of Entry from your Thai Embassy or Consulate
- Approved alerting app installed on your smartphone
- COVID-19 health insurance with minimum coverage of USD 100,000
- RT-PCR test on arrival – for adults and children of 6 years or older

YOUR STAY

For the first 7 nights of your stay in Koh Samui, you will be required to stay at an ALQ-approved hotel, such as Avani+ Samui Resort. Thereafter, you can stay at any SHA+ certified hotel on Koh Samui, Koh Phangan or Koh Tao. See our destinations below for all our SHA+ certified resorts.

- Day 0: Wait in your hotel room until you receive the RT-PCR test result.
- Days 1 - 3: If the result is negative, you are free to enjoy all the leisure and activities facilities within your resort.
- Days 4 - 7: You can leave your hotel and enjoy local attractions along sealed routes. Adults and children aged 6 and above undergo a 2nd RT-PCR test on Day 7.
- Days 8 - 14: If the second test is negative you can travel freely and stay at any SHA+ certified hotel in Koh Samui, Koh Phangan or Koh Tao. Adults and children aged 6 and above undergo a 2nd RT-PCR test on Day 13.

Departure

After 14 days, and a third negative test on Day 13, you will be permitted to travel to other destinations within Thailand. Regional COVID-19 restrictions may apply. For international departures, you will be responsible for satisfying all the requirements for travelling to your next destination.

Information is based on the latest updates from the Tourism Authority of Thailand (TAT) and may be subject to change.*
