Samui

Koh Samui, Thailand is open for international travel from 15 July 2021, with onward travel to the neighbouring islands of Koh Phangan and Koh Tao allowed after 7 days traveling under the Samui Extra Plus, previously known as Samui Plus Model, is permitted for:

- Fully vaccinated adults from low- and medium-risk countries
- Children travelling with vaccinated parents

Travellers will be permitted to travel to other parts of Thailand after 14 days if they test negative for COVID-19.

PRE-ARRIVAL & ARRIVAL

To travel to Koh Samui, you will require:

- A negative PCR test result issued within 72 hours before departure
- Proof that you have been fully vaccinated against COVID-19
- Proof that you spent previous 21 days in low- or medium-risk country
- Confirmation of booking at Samui Extra Plus Resort(minimum 7 nights) and SHA+ certified hotels for 14 nights
- A Certificate of Entry from your Thai Embassy or Consulate
- Approved alerting app installed on your smartphone
- COVID 19 health insurance with minimum coverage of USD 100,000
- RT-PCR test on arrival not – for adults and children of 6 years or older

YOUR STAY

For the first 7 nights of your stay in Koh Samui, you will be required to stay at a Samui Extra Plus approved hotel, such as Avani+ Samui Resort. Thereafter, you can stay at any SHA+ certified hotel on Koh Samui, Koh Phangan or Koh Tao. See our destinations below for all our SHA+ certified resorts.

- Day 0: Wait in your hotel room until you receive the RT-PCR test result.
- Days 1 - 3: If the result is negative, you are free to enjoy all the leisure and activities facilities within your resort.
- Days 4 - 7: You can leave your hotel and enjoy local attractions along sealed routes. Adults and children aged 6 and above undergo a 2nd RT-PCR test on Day 7.
- Days 8 - 14: If all guests test negative during the second test, you can travel freely and stay at any SHA+ certified hotel in Koh Samui, Koh Phangan or Koh Tao.

Departure

After 14 days, and a third negative test on Day 13, you will be permitted to travel to other destinations within Thailand. Regional COVID-19 restrictions may apply. For international departures, you will be responsible for satisfying all the requirements for travelling to your next destination.
