DESARU COAST
RESORT & VILLAS

Anantara Desaru Coast Resort & Villas Factsheet

Desaru Coast is a natural paradise of 17 km of golden beach overlooking the South China Sea. Here, your days are filled with adventure or tranquility, whether lazing by the ocean, teeing off on world-class golf courses, or splashing at the waterpark.

This first Anantara in Malaysia is a luxury hideaway modelled on a traditional fishing village. Low-rise buildings are set amidst lush gardens and tranquil lagoons. Take in the most magnificent of ocean sparkling views from private beach residences, the Infinity Pool or the Observatory Bar. The resort comprises of deluxe guest rooms in low-rise buildings that overlook the gardens, lagoon and ocean; stand-alone luxury one- and two-bedroom pool villas; and expansive three- and four-bedroom residences that offer guests utmost privacy with an infinity pool, full kitchen and butler service.

Designed by Singapore architect firm WOW Architects & Warner Wong Design and interiors by Environment Design Consultants from Malaysia, the resort's architectural design resembles traditional Malay buildings and is adorned with indigenous materials and fabrics such as woven textiles; renowned Malaysian wicker elements; and silhouettes of traditional Malay crafts.

Location

Desaru Coast, Malaysia's newest resort destination, is located on the southern tip of the peninsula near Singapore. A luxury integrated development, the coastal area is famous for its prime attractions including The Els Club Desaru Coast designed by Ernie Els and Adventure Waterpark.

Ideal for weekend getaways from Singapore, located a two hours' drive or short ferry ride from Tanah Merah. The nearby Senai International Airport in Johor Bahru receives multiple daily flights from Kuala Lumpur, as well as international flights from around Asia.
