SIGNATURE TREATMENT

The traditional hammam ritual begins with a green tea infusion - a blend of sweet peppermint leaves, rose petals and orange blossom – to calm the mind and start the detox process. Immersed in the steam of the hararet (hot room), the body is primed to receive the Moroccan scrub with black soap, a natural emollient, rich in vitamin E and made from olives, followed by a rhassoul detox wrap. The final touch is a gentle oil massage steeped in vanilla, musk and brown sugar to enrich the skin.
