TEA EXPERT

Silver Tips 1,400

The Uva region, spanning high and mid elevations in the central mountains, is renowned for its distinctive tea production due to its unique climate. It is entirely handmade using the tender buds of a special varietal of the tea plant

Tasting Note – Light-bodied and floral

Brewing time – 7–10 minutes

Organic Uva 1,200

Located in the central mountains, it is renowned for producing distinctive teas due to its unique climate. This organic blend hails from a single tea garden at an altitude of over 4,000 feet

Tasting Note – Full-bodied, strong, and aromatic

Brewing time – 3–5 minutes

Kandyan Breakfast 1,200

The historic Kandy tea region, with its plentiful sunshine and temperate climate, produces teas with intense flavour and body, more so than those grown at higher altitudes.

Tasting Note – Full-bodied and brisk

Brewing time – 3–5 minutes

Golden Ruhuna 1,200

Deep in the southern lowlands of the Ruhuna region, the hot and humid climate, with frequent tropical downpours, creates the ideal environment for tea growth, resulting in leaves that are succulent and rich in chlorophyll.

Tasting Note – Full-bodied, with wiry twisted leaves and golden tips.

Brewing time – 3–5 minutes
