

EXPERIENCE A CULTURAL LEGACY

A large, multi-story resort building with a prominent red-tiled roof and light-colored walls. The building features a mix of traditional and modern architectural elements, including a balcony with a glass railing and a section with a textured, grey wall. In the foreground, a large, calm swimming pool reflects the sky and the building. Along the edge of the pool, there are several blue lounge chairs and matching umbrellas. A tall palm tree stands prominently in the background against a cloudy sky. The overall atmosphere is serene and luxurious.

WELCOME TO SERENDIPITY

Designed by Geoffrey Bawa, Sri Lanka's most famous architect, Anantara Kalutara Resort features a striking Dutch colonial style with iconic soaring ceilings and free-flowing sun-dappled spaces opening onto stunning waterscapes while inviting the breeze in. Nestled between the Kalu Ganga River and the Indian Ocean, our luxury resort provides a prime view of the stunning convergence, with a direct beach access.

TRAVEL NOTES FOR A SEAMLESS JOURNEY

Landscape

Located just 60-minutes away from Colombo city, Kalutara lies along the southwestern coast of Sri Lanka. Rich in culture and tradition, Kalutara's name is believed to have been derived from the Kalu Ganga River, which translates to "black river". Fronting both the Indian Ocean and the Kalu Ganga estuary, this unique locale is perfect for adventures.

People

The Sri Lankan people descend from many travellers who encountered the island while passing through the Indian Ocean trading route. Sinhala and Tamil are the native languages of the island, but English is understood in most urban areas.

Weather

The weather in Sri Lanka is tropical and warm all year round, ranging from 22° C (71° F) to 32° C (89° F).

Currency

The national currency of Sri Lanka is the rupee. The exchange rate fluctuates between LKR 150 to 155 to the USD on average. Money can be changed at the airport and in cities. All major credit cards are accepted.

Arrival

Visitors to Sri Lanka can apply for a tourist visa with double entries, which usually takes 2 working days to process. The Bandaranaike International Airport is served by a large number of flights from all over the world. Anantara Kalutara Resort is located approximately 78 kilometres away from the airport – a 90-minute car journey.

Exploration

Adventure through the island via land or sea. Whether it is visiting national parks, or going whale watching, our resort staff are happy to arrange any excursions for you.
