

Sea and be scene

Hôtel Byblos has expanded from its base at the heart of Saint-Tropez with a new beach club on the iconic sands of the Plage de Pampelonne. Designed by Francois Frossard, who recently transformed the hotel's nightclub, Les Caves du Roy, it boasts a restaurant serving up light Mediterranean fare and 100 sunbeds on the beach – with a strict no-plastic policy. byblos.com

Day and night

Relive the golden years of the 1960s in the French Riviera with sleepwear specialist Hesper Fox's first foray into resort wear. The Mimosa Collection – packed with easy-wear linen pieces, silk prints and classic silhouettes – is perfect for making the most of long sunny days. We love the Acacia cotton dress (left). £340, hesperfox.com
