

SET SAIL & HOOK SOMETHING SPECIAL

FISHING INFORMATION

OVERVIEW

Quirimbas National Park (QNP) is a protected area in the Cabo Delgado Province of Mozambique, encompassing the southern part of the Quirimbas Islands, as well as a significant mainland area. It is one of the most preserved and untouched ecosystems in Mozambique, a sanctuary for its extensive marine life offering excellent fishing opportunities. These waters are renowned for sailfish, marlin, dorado, wahoo, kingfish, queenfish, barracuda, mackerel, yellowfin and dogtooth tuna among others.

A catch and release practice within recreational fishing is highly recommended intended as a technique of conservation to ensure sustainability while preventing overharvest of fish stocks, often a fast measurement and weighing of the fish, followed by photography of the catch is worthwhile.

EQUIPMENT

Charters take place in our 8 metre fully rigged Cuddy Club 28 Butt Cat powered by 2 Suzuki DF150 Learn burn Precision controls and equipped with Lowrance SDS10 chart plotter, Garmin SV70 chirp 50kwa sounder, VHF Marine Radio and 5m outriggers.

Trolling Tackle

TLD 25r Reels on Penn International IGFA 30s Rod, Tiagra 30W Reels on Penn International IGFA 30 Rods, Tiagra 30W Reels on Shimano Tiagra TI50s Rods, Tiagra 50W Reels on Shimano Tiagra TI80B bent butt Rods.

Casting Tackle

Saragosa SW8000 Reels on Power Graphite PE8 DST 8'3", Kaibustu GT Pleasure 8'0#" 120G, Shimano TLC M70HA Rods. Sustain 5000FG Reels on Shimano CRS 72MA worm and jig, Shimano CRS 70MH, Shimano Tiger 70H2 Rods.

FISHING SEASONS
Sailfish		May to September Excellent	October to April Average
Marlin		August to November Excellent	December to July Average
Dorado		October to March Excellent	April to September Average
Wahoo		September to January Excellent	February to August Average
King Mackerel		January to December Excellent
Barracuda		January to December Excellent
Giant Trevally		January to December Excellent
Yellowfin Tuna		January to December Good
Dogtooth Tuna		January to December Good

Anantara Medjumbe Island Resort
Quirimbas Archipelago, Cabo Delgado Province, Mozambique
T: +258 866 101 477 or +27 10 003 8979
E: medjumbe@anantara.com or E: cro.jnb@minorhotels.com

LIFE IS A JOURNEY. Visit anantara.com/medjumbe-island

