ABOUT NATSUPON PHROMSAWAT AND OH!MY CRAFT STUDIO

Natsupon Phromsawat (Ohm) is a talented couture paper artist and founder of OH! My Craft Studio.

His professional interest lies in recreating the beauty of flowers through a refined experimental technique of paper crafting. Natsupon studied arts and design at Silpakorn University, majoring in decorative arts and graduating with a bachelor's degree in visual communication art. His fascination with paper craft and arts led to an illustrious career, including early-career stints as a creative and prop designer for many fashion and fine jewellery brands.

ABOUT HOUSE OF CREATION

The concept of the 'House of Creation' was inspired by Anantara Siam's ceiling art that emulates the universe and celestial bodies from Thai folklore and the history of the unfinished mural by the hotel's grand staircase.

By taking the viewer on a journey to the Pillars of Creation – The Universe or the heavenly realm, The Sun, The Moon as well as Rahu, – experimental couture paper art by Natsupon Phromsawat ponders the mysteries of life and its origins by deconstructing, reconstructing, reshaping and reforming the concept of life itself.
