

HOUSE OF EDEN

AFTERNOON TEA CULTURE SERIES
IN COLLABORATION WITH

Krishna the Fifth

ANANTARA
SIAM · BANGKOK
HOTEL

Whisking guests into a forbidden garden inhabited by mythical creatures, the sensory experience retells the biblical story of the sixth day of creation through scientific illustrations painting on a classic canvas. In a whimsical terrestrial journey in which the artist introduces the viewer to the inhabitants of the Garden of Eden, the forbidden fruit is replaced by a decadent tea service offered amid the frescoed splendour of the Lobby Lounge, exclusively for Anantara Siam Bangkok Hotel.

ABOUT ATTHAKRISNA VANNASON (KRISHNA THE FIFTH)

Atthakrisna Vannason is an award-winning painter and jewellery designer living and working in Bangkok, Thailand. His professional interest lies in capturing the beauty of animals, humans and gods through the observation of organic forms in nature. Vannason studied arts and design at Silpakorn University, majoring in decorative arts and graduating with a bachelor's degree in applied arts in 2007. His fascination with design and painting led to an illustrious career. Having first made a name for himself as a jewellery designer, he later developed a passion for watercolour painting, specifically for depicting animals.
