YOU HAPPEN TO BE A BOTTLE OF WINE.”

SOMETHING A BIT DIFFERENT

Zweigelt, Heinrich, Burgenland, Austria, 2016 €90

Gernot Heinrich has a very small vineyard just kilometres from the Hungarian border. After graduating, Gernot travelled around some of the best wine producing regions in the world such as Bordeaux, California, Italy & Spain. His travels convinced him that the Austrians continental climate was most suited to indigenous grapes such as this stunning Zweigelt

Sparkling Chardonnay, J'Noon, JCB No. 47, Akluj, India €90

For the wine curious who are celebrating! This is a gorgeous 100% Chardonnay sparkling wine from India. It is a joint venture alongside the renowned French Cremant Winemaker Jean-Charles Boisset so is a really great quality sparkling wine!

SOMETHING A BIT DIFFERENT

Pinot Blanc, Stopham Estate, Sussex, England, 2011 / 2013 €78

Engineer turned Wine maker, Simon Woodhead planted some Pinot Blanc grapes in Sussex, England. Some would say this wine tastes very New Zealand in style, but definitely has pure English aromas on the nose. This wine goes well with white meats and seafood.

Sagrantino, Jamsheed, Victoria, Australia, 2017 €76

Don't be alarmed when the waiter brings over a beer opener to open this wine. The producer has bottled this wine with a crown cap! Gary Mills who is the brains behind Jamsheed began his wine career in the renowned Ridge Vineyards in California. It's a vibrant, easy drinking wine with lots of crunchy red fruits and a mouth-watering acidity. Delicious served slightly chilled!
