

Welcome to Mekong, our signature and awards winning restaurant at Anantara the Palm Dubai Resort. The restaurant is named after the largest river in Southeast Asia, 'Mekong River', which passes through Thailand, China, Vietnam, Myanmar, Laos and Cambodia.

Mekong is an exotic feast for the senses, offering a fascinating Asian culinary journey with Thai, Chinese and Vietnamese influences. Our talented Chef de cuisine, Therdpong Khunwiset, and his kitchen brigade offer a unique selection of classic dishes with a bit of 'our own little touch' which is something you do not want to miss.

All dishes are prepared as authentic as possible to ensure no taste is missing from the original flavors. If there is anything you cannot find on the menu, fear not to ask our helpful team members for recommendation as chef can always make you something to enjoy.

We warmly welcome you and your loved ones to experience our vibrant hospitality and let us take you to Southeast Asia.
