ACTIVITIES FOR ALL OR YOU AND YOURS

Explore Zambia. Let the wonders of Africa enthrall your stay at The Royal Livingstone and Victoria Falls. As wildlife roam around the hotel grounds and further afield, choose from many enriching activities to relax or excite.

Victoria Falls Leisure Walk

Just a five-minute walk away, take a stroll to one of the natural wonders of the world. Discover how nature has shaped the geology of Victoria Falls and learn more about the people living in her midst.

Helicopter / Microlight

Gaze down on the mighty Victoria Falls from the air. The huge Zambezi River flows slowly south, with hippos and crocodiles clearly visible in the shallow waters. Elephants graze on bright green islands just before the water that crashes over the falls.

Sunset Cruise

Sail along the river boundary of the Mosi-oa-Tunya National Park. Hippos, crocodiles, and a wide range of African birdlife can be seen on land and in the water. Other game sightings include bush elephants, giraffes, buffaloes and bucks. Learn from a knowledgeable guide as the sun sets in this spectacular environment.

Livingstone Island

At the centre of the Zambezi River, Livingstone Island offers a high adrenaline experience. Twist and turn through the rushing water to reach this protected area – open to only 16 people at a time. Experience the ultimate infinity pool – Devil's Pool – with views over the 100 m drop. Trips are seasonal and depend on water levels.

White Water Rafting

Adrenaline seekers must sign up for this exhilarating adventure. Magnificent scenery, sunshine, warm waters, and superb rapids all make this one of the greatest white water rafting adventures in the world. The Zambezi River is classified as a high volume, pool-drop river. Raft your way through rapids covering 24 km and a combined drop of 400 feet.

Bungee Jumping

Take a leap of faith during one of the highest jumps in the world. With the falls behind you and the river rushing below, adrenaline will course through your veins. At 111 metres, the Victoria Falls Bridge offers a breathtaking vantage point and place to do your jump.
