LOCATION & HISTORY

hotel was added to the portfolio of Anantara Hotels, Resorts and Spas.

Anantara New York Palace is located on the Pest side of the Danube and one of the city's most important boulevards. Central and convenient for all major sights and cultural attractions.

The building was opened in 1894 as the opulent European headquarters for the New York Life insurance Company. An eclectic, Belle Époque palace, designed by Alajos Hauszmann, a famous Austro-Hungarian architect and drew on Italian Renaissance, Baroque, Gothic and Art Nouveau influences. Upon opening, the first two floors of the palace were occupied by New York Life's offices; the other floors were used as living quarters for the firm's employees. During the First and Second World Wars, it closed its doors and the building suffered significant damage. In the 1950s, it was used as a sports shop and tourism offices, before closing for a period in the 1990s. It reopened as a luxury hotel in May 2006 and in 2020 the
