Dewa Dewi wedding chapel

Anantara Uluwatu Bali Resort

What type of couple would be attracted to your venue? A romantic couple ready to be mesmerised by Uluwatu's legendary sunsets as they savour delectable cuisine specially crafted by our culinary team.

What are some of your most popular and delicious dishes? Our signature dishes for weddings are tourmedes of Aberdeen Angus beef tenderloin with burgundy juice and nutty potatoes or delicious bamboo lobster tail with red curry foam.

Do you cater for vegetarians? Yes, we do. We have a dedicated vegetarian menu and can also prepare specific options based on your personal requests.

Do you offer both sit-down and cocktail-style receptions? Yes. You can choose whether to have a sit-down, buffet or cocktail-style reception.

Can couples BYO wine? We have a wine selection available but if a couple wants to bring their own wine we are happy to accommodate. A service fee applies for BYO.

What exactly does the cost per head cover? Lots of food starts from USD 75++ (excluding 21% service charge and government tax) for a set menu or buffet.

What type of packages do you offer? Food packages with the option of a sit-down dinner or buffet menu. We also offer beverage packages that include non-alcoholic drinks right through to a full bar.

Do you have a special area for ceremonies? Our signature venue is the Dewa Dewi glass wedding chapel, which is perched on the cliff edge to capture stunning ocean views and beautiful sunsets.

For evening receptions, do you request an official finishing time? We request a 10pm finishing time.

What advice can you offer couples looking for their dream reception venue? Look for somewhere with a nice ambience and listen to your heart when making your final decision on venue.
